History of Johnson C. Smith University

In 1867, the Rev. S.C. Alexander and the Rev. W. L. Miller saw the need to establish an institution in this section the South and began to devise such plans as would secure the desired results. On April 7, 1867, at a meeting of th Catawba Presbytery in the old Charlotte Presbyterian Church, formerly located at the corner of D and Fourth streets, Charlotte, N.C., The movement for the school was formally inaugurated, and these two ministers were elected as teachers.

Information concerning the establishing of the school was brought to the attention of Mrs. Mary D. Biddle, an excellent churchwoman of Philadelphia, Pa., who through appeals on behalf of the work in one of the church papers, pledged $1,400. In appreciation of this first and generous contribution, friends of the project requested M Biddle to name the newly established school after her late husband, Major Henry Biddle. After the request was granted, the school was named Biddle Memorial Institute and later was chartered by the state legislature under that name.

Colonel W. R. Myers, a wealthy citizen of Charlotte, donated the first eight acres of land used as the site for the school. From 1867 to 1876, the school was known as the Biddle Memorial Institute. In 1876, the charter was changed by the Legislature of North Carolina, and the name of the school became Biddle University. The institution operated under this name until 1923.

From 1921 to 1922, the late Mrs. Jane Berry Smith, of Pittsburgh, Pa., gave funds for the erection of a theological dormitory, a science hall, a teachers' cottage and a memorial gate. In addition, she provided a handsome endowment for the institution in memory of her late husband Johnson C. Smith. In recognition of these generous benefations, the Board of Trustees voted to change the name of the institution to Johnson C. Smith University. The chart of the school, accordingly, was so amended March 1, 1923, by the Legislature of the State of North Carolina. Fron 1923 until her death in October 1929, Mrs. Smith gave funds for the erection of five more buildings, including a campus church.

James B. Duke, a wealthy businessman of Somerville, N.J., further strengthened the University from 1924 to 1925 a result of a substantial provision. Mr. Duke also had a home in Charlotte and had been contacted by the preside of the university, Dr. H.L. McCrorey, several years earlier for a contribution. Mr. Duke did not respond to Dr. McCrorey's letter, but in the authorization of the establishment of the Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924, Johnson C. Smith University was included as one of the beneficiaries. Through the years, the Duke Endowment has been of inestimable value to the continued development of the university.

Also in 1924, the institution was recognized by the North Carolina State Board of Education as a four-year colleg In 1929, the high school department was discontinued, and the standard program was restricted to a college of liberal arts and sciences and a theological department.

In 1932, the university's charter was amended, providing for the admission of women to the senior division. The 65-year-old institution for men then became partially coeducational.

In 1928, the institution attained the status of an independent college, affiliated with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, reporting to the General Assembly through the Board of Christian Education.

Johnson C. Smith University joined the United Negro College Fund in 1944. This fund was organized primarily thelp church-related schools of higher learning to revamp their training programs, to expand their plants, to promote faculty growth, and to create new areas of service. The institution's membership in the fund began to bear fruit immediately

Mission Statement

Founded in 1867 under the auspices of the Committee on Freedmen of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., Johnson C. Smith University (JCSU) is an independent, private, coeducational institution of higher learning. Located in the rapidly growing metropolis of Charlotte, North Carolina, "Queen City of the South", this historically African-American university has a residential campus with a familial atmosphere in which students are stimulated and nurtured by dedicated and caring faculty and staff.

Consistant with its Christian roots, the university recognizes the importance of moral and ethical values to undergird intellectual development and all endeavors. JCSU believes in the unrelenting pursuit of knowledge and in the values of cultivating the life of the mind. The university assigns great significance to the development of self-confidence, to the understanding of ones' own heritage as well as an awareness of the cultures of others, to exploration of the myriad forces affecting people of a complex technological age, and to formulating a sense of one's role in this schema.

The mission of JCSU is to provide an outstanding education for a diverse group of talented and highly motivated students from various ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographical backgrounds. The university offers a liberal education in conjunction with concentrated study in specialized fields, in preparation for advanced study and specific careers.

The university endeavors to produce graduates who are able to communicate effectively, think critically, learn independently as well as collaboratively, and demonstrate competence in their chosen fields. Further, it provides an environment in which students can fulfill their physical, social, cultural, spiritual, and other personal needs through which they can develop a compelling sense of social and civic responsibility for leadership and service in a dynamic, multicultural society. Likewise, the university embraces its responsibility to provide leadership, service, and lifelong learning to the larger community.

Regarding teaching effectiveness as paramount in its educational enterprise, JCSU has a commitment to the recruitment and retention of an outstanding faculty. To this end, the university promotes faculty development, encourages faculty involvement in research and other creative activities, and endorses the principles of academic freedom.

To insure the integrity and stability of its status and the perpetuation of its rich legacy, Johnson C. Smith University has a firm resolve to maintain the fiscal and human resources requisite to be a truly distinctive institution—a hallmark of excellence in its students, faculty, staff, administrators, academic and other programs, facilities, operations, and environment.

DEDICATION:

This book is dedicated to the new 2002 Yearbook Staff and he class of 2002. You worked very hard to get this book out, n a very short period of time. With the help of Kelly Shealy of Jostens and the students at Johnson C. Smith University rou completed the book, I must say a JOB WELL DONE. Vithout the continued efforts of those listed, this book would have been impossible to construct.

Staff Member

The SOPHOMORES

The 2-Year Change

Going through college is almost synonymous with going through changes. Whether you're at Johnson C. Smith University for four years, ten years, or just one quarter, chances are that the experiences you have had have affected who you are- and why you are that way.

Changes can physical- ask anyone whose 1.D. picture bears little resemblance to him now or whose fresman year clothes are yards too big or sizes too small.

Through less obvious, changes in personality, lifestyle and personal beliefs also come about. Remember a freshman, the kid who never drank, cleaned his room and got up for the church every Sunday? Did it surprise you only a year later to see the same person in H20 1:30 a.m. on a Sunday Morning, surrounded by strange friends and every kind of mix drink you can name?

Think of your own experiences- the people you have met, the job interviews, the classes, the good times or bad. Think of what yu once believed in, and reevluate it now. Have you changed?

As the class of 2004 continues to experiences some of these changes, we realize that we must just stand the test of times.

Dont Quit
When things go wrong,
as they sometimes will.
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill.
When the funds are low
and the debts are high.
And you want to smile,
but you have to sigh.
When care is pressing you down a bit...

Success is failure turned inside out. The silver tint of the clouds of doubt. And you can tell how close you are. It may be near when it seems afar.

So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit. It's when things go wrong that you mustn't quit.

"It All Depends On How You Think"

If you think you are beaten - you are. If you think you dare not - you don't. If you'd like to win but think you can't, It's almost certain you won't. If you think you will lose, you've lost, For out in the world you'll find Success begins with a fellow's will. It's all in the state of your mind. If you think you're outclassed, you are. You've got to think high to rise. You've got to be sure of yourself before you can ever win a prize. Life's battles don't always go To the stronger or faster man, But sooner or later the one who wins Is the one who thinks he can.

It feels good, don't it. There's nothing like a good laugh.. Some people laugh to keep from frowning, and others laugh just becasu eit is funny. As long as you, I've done my part.

Rapper Jadakiss (born Jason Phillips) became a member of the Ruff Ryders in 1994. That same year, he joined the Lox (who started their saga in the Ruff Ryders team as a group called the Warlocks) and has remained a member of both groups since. He made his way down to Charlotte, North Carolina to show out for the 2001 Homecoming Concert. It was hot and Jadakiss is with no doubt a performer.

The Evolution of Miss Johnson C. Smith Univerity

glamour began when the football squad began choosing charming young ladies to sponsor athletic activities. The 1928 editions of Bull (yearbook) featured Miss Valinda Wagner as a sponsor of the Smith-Virginia State Football game played in 1927. The second le did not carry this feature but the 1930 issue featured: Miss Vivienne Scott, football; Miss Dorothy Fletcher, basketball; and Miss A. ora Owens, baseball. More queens were added as the number of sports increased. The title "Sponsor" under went a change and the e "Miss Smith" was used until it was replaced by the longer title "Miss Johnson C. Smith Homecoming Queen." Today the queen is erred to as Miss Johnson C. Smith University.

During the early years, the president of the University crowned the Queen on the football field during half-time activities. During the office, after the organizations of the Student Government, the Queen's activities became the highlight of the Homecoming. The onation was staged Friday evening before the Saturday afternoon game. In 1961 there was a Reunion of Past Queens where ten out of try-two queens were in attendance.

The Queens rules over all student activities until coronation of her successor the following year. The annual coronation of the Queen w takes place on Thursday before the Homecoming game. The Homecoming parade that precedes the games reaches its climax with appearance of the Queen's float. During half time of the Homecoming game, the queen is presented to the crowd. Smith co-ed siders it a distinct honor to be chosen by her fellow students to reign as Queen for a year.

THERE GOES AN ALPHA MAN

By Peter Clarke

There goes a man of high impulse, of princely mien and grace.

There goes a man of humble faith, a credit to his race.

There goes a man of conscious vast, with will to reach his goal.

There goes a man of lordly rank, of heroes stock and soul.

There goes a man of noble cast whom hardship cannot break. There goes a man in merit clad, whom duty won't forsake.

There goes a man of culture verse, who holds a sportsman's creed. There goes a man too vigilant to bow' to lust or greed

There goes a man whose life is spent in service, not in scorn.

There goes a man whose majesty shines like a maytime morn.

There goes a man who is a friend to love and duty truth.

There goes a man to help uplift the lives of wholesome youth.

There goes a man with industry and faith at his command.

"Hand Me Down my Kappa Kane..."

The use of walking sticks and canes may very well date back to centuries B.C. to the times when shepherds would tend to their flocks. This ties into the early roots of Christianity and leads to the candy canes of today being striped the way they are (3 thin stripes and 1 solid stripe) to remind us of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost and the blood of Christ. The shape was believed to be chosen because the cane, if pointed upward, resembles the letter "J" for Jesus. The history of the cane also ties in with the African Rights of Passage, and was a symbol of manhood th had to be carried by initiates wishing to become adult members of their respective tribe.

Dealing more directly with the evolution of the cane and how it relates to the Fraternity, canes started off as a device used to assist people with walking difficulties, and later turned into social status symbols for society. In the 1700's and 1800's, canes were a fashion embellishment. One "wore" a cane. These old canes were decorative, objects to be admired and be proud of. They became collectors' items and represented the true sign of a Gentleman

Members of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity have always worn or carried canes since the beginning of the Fraternity in 1911. Although unintentional in its inception, this occurrence soon became an unofficial tradition of Kappa men, as Kappas have always strived to be noble and productive members of the community. The cane, being the symbol of a Gentleman, who exhibits such characteristics, was then proudly adorned by members of the Fraternity.

"... I'm going to take a stroll one day down Kappa Lane"

AND God said.....I'll make me a man,
A man of Courage, A man of Dignity,
A man who is able to become all that is said,
'Il make him in the color of valor: Krimson Red
A man with Gleam, A man of Wisdom,
A man who is able to fulfill every woman's dream,

I'll make him in the color of Integrity: Kappa Kreme

A man who consists of no ends or boundaries,

A man who is wise in all his decisions,

A man who has the willingness to achieve,
And the knowledge to obtain every goal,
I'll make a man that compels of no sin,
And God said.

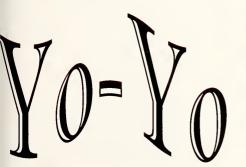

I'll start this group of men with ten!

Men of Strength, Men of Love,

Men who are worthy of treasures from above,

Men who are as radiant as diamonds in the sky,
And God said, I'll make a man

And I'll call him A KAPPA Man

Fathers Are Wonderful People

by: Helen Steiner Rice,

Fathers are wonderful people Too little understood, And we do not sing their praises As often as we should...

For, somehow, Father seems to be The man who pays the bills, While Mother binds up little hurts And nurses all our ills...

And Father struggles daily To live up to "his image" As protector and provider And "hero of the scrimmage"...

And perhaps that is the reason We sometimes get the notion, That Fathers are not subject To the thing we call emotion,

But if you look inside Dad's heart, Where no one else can see You'll find he's sentimental And as "soft" as he can be...

But he's so busy every day In the grueling race of life; He leaves the sentimental stuff To his partner and his wife...

But Fathers are just wonderful In a million different ways, And they merit loving compliments And accolades of praise,

For the only reason Dad aspires To fortune and success Is to make the family proud of him And to bring them happiness...

And like Our Heavenly Father, He's a guardian and a guide, Someone that we can count on To be always on our side.

Eulogy Given by Aaliyah's Brother

By: Rashad H. Haughton

We are here today to celebrate the life and acknowledge the transition into peace of Aaliyah. In addition, we keep in our hearts the eight passengers who not only worked with her but loved her too. Keeth Wallace, Eric Forman, Gina Smith, Luis Morales, Scott Gallin, Doug Kratz, Christopher Maldonado, and Anthony Dodd.

As we live each day on this earth, we write a chapter in the book of our lives. It is a book filled with stories of happiness, laughter, adventure, danger, sadness, joy, pain, and love. Every person that smiles at us as they pass us by on the street; each is important in creating the myriad of memories that make us who we are, I believe that time exists so that we may pinpoint each one of those memories in our book of life. When the time comes for our book to be finished, we can go back and reexperience any moment that we wish to for however long we desire. God has decided that Aaliyah's book is done, and now she can sit by his side and enjoy flipping through the pages of her life and finally learn the meaning of the mystery we are all still living here on earth.

Aaliyah was my little sister, my best friend, my hero, my perfect love. I knew all her little secrets and she knew all of mine. Whenever I was lost or felt there was no way out, she was there to take my hand and guide me through. What made her so special was that although she was a star, when you met her she made you feel like a star. Babygirl, I will see your smile in every sunrise and feel the warmth of your touch in its rays. I will remember how your tears cleansed my soul in every raindrop and your kiss like the wind on my face. When the birds sing I'll hear your angelic voice resonate through the sky. I'll look at the moon and stars and see the twinkle in your eye; I'll walk the earth knowing that you are everywhere. Looking down from heaven, waiting for your big brother to get there. Hold her for me God,

January 16, 1979 - August 26, 2001

Thank you Aaliyah for allowing us to be a part of your life. The Class of 2002 will miss you as we continue to stand the test of time.

God gave you your daughter For such a little while; He put a bit of heaven In the sunshine of her smile.

He took dust from

That your hearts are grieved and sad,
We know she lives with God
And her small heart is glad.

And though your precious darling Was just a rosebud small; She'll bloom in all her beauty On the other side of the wall.

I Am Not There

By: Author Unknown

Do not stand at my grave and forever weep.

I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's

I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and forever cry.

I am not there. I did not die.

It's for the women that stand beside me, Jada Pinkett, Angela Bassett, Vivica Fox. And it's for every nameless, faceless woman of color that now has a chance because this door tonight has been opened. Thank you. I'm so honored. I'm so honored. Forty years I've been chasing Sidney [Poitier], they finally give it to me, what'd they do? They give it to him the same night. I'll always be chasing you, Sidney. I'll always be following in your footsteps. There's nothing I would rather do, sir. Nothing I would rather do. God bless you. God bless you.

Music is a form of Art and a way of expression

R&B singer Alicia Keys, whose debut album has sold more than 3 million copies, picked up nominations in five categories to lead the field of nominees for the 29th American Music Awards.

Rookie R&B singer India. Arie, who was snubbed at several awards shows this year, including the Grammy's, finally won a prize from the music industry. Arie was named best female R&B artist at the 2nd annual BET Awards.

Newcomer Alicia Keys may have led the nominations with eight, but R&B great R. Kelly was the top winner at the 2001 Billboard Music Awards, which were broadcast live from the MGM Grand in Las Vegas.

"Well, I chose the title, No More Drama, because, basically everybody knows me for, everything that I live, I sing about. And, you know, just things that go on in my life are, what I sing about."

"The focal point is enjoying life right now, while we can."

The Princess of R&B and Hip Hop says,

"I didn't want to sing only slow songs and I didn't want to be spittin' rhymes. But Mary [J. Blige] put those concepts together. She cleared the way, and now I'm following my own path."

Gospel Music

"Just like a tree, that's planted by the waters- I shall not be moved...'

From the smooth sounds of Sam defined as religious, gospel has Cooke to the dancing, acrobatic vocals of Kirk Franklin, gospel music does more than just sound sweet-it literally moves its listeners. Whether it's swaying with the choirs or tappin' along with the quartets or simply raising hands to the rhythm of soul-stirring crooners, gospel is one genre of music that needs to be both seen and heard, Once narrowly transcended those limits to become a profound force in American music and popular culture.

As the music moves beyond its incubator-the church-it is imperative to understand where it is. where it has been, and where it is going. As Christians we must hope that the music is building bridges, not walls.

(From an article) by Phil Petrie managing editor of Gospel Today magazine

It would be impossible to include all artists which have contributed to the development of Gospel Music. Names would include, Mahalia Jackson, Shirely Ceasar, John P. Kee, Karen Clark-Sheard, Kirk Franklin, Virtue, Canton Spirituals, Vickie Winans, Mary Mary, CeCe & BeBe Winans.Oleta Adams.DonnieMcClurklin. Yolanda Adams, and the list goes on.

... Undestand What We Going Through

"Still I Rise" By Maya Angelou

You may write me down in history With your bitter, twisted lies, You may trod me in the very dirt But still, like dust, I'll rise.

Does my sassiness upset you? Why are you beset with gloom? 'Cause I walk like I've got oil wells Pumping in my living room.

Just like moons and like suns, With the certainty of tides, Just like hopes springing high, Still I'll rise.

Did you want to see me broken? Bowed head and lowered eyes? Shoulders falling down like teardrops. Weakened by my soulful cries.

Does my haughtiness offend you? Don't you take it awful hard Cause I laugh like I've got gold mines Diggin' in my own back yard.

You may shoot me with your words, You may cut me with your eyes, You may kill me with your hatefulness, But still, like air, I'll rise.

Does my sexiness upset you? Does it come as a surprise That I dance like I've got diamonds At the meeting of my thighs?

Out of the huts of history's shame Irise
Up from a past that's rooted in pain Irise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.
Leaving behind nights of terror and fear Irise
nto a daybreak that's wondrously clear Irise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
Irise

I rise.

Each of Us Must Climb Our Separate Mountain

Each of us must climb our separate mountain
To reach at last our own extended view.
We can be no more than what we are,
Yet that is quite enough for us to do.

The world is far too great for comprehension,
And so we only know what we can know.
But given the abilities we're given,
That's still a long and weary way to go.

Yet on the way, how beautiful the moments! How good it feels to have some skill or art! How wonderful to pause in awestruck wonder At what must fill the unsuspecting heart!

And so we're proud of each of you today
For all you've learned, and all you've tried to learn.
Knowledge brings the deepest satisfaction,
Not least because it's something that you earn.

Candice S. Simmons-Editor

We would like to take this time to say thank you to some very special people. We would like to first acknowledge the staff that begun this project, you work was not in vain. We must then say thank you to the persons who came into this not really knowing what to expect and stuck in till the end. Kelly Shealy, we could not have done it without your patience and guidance. Dean Day, you setted us up sometimes but you came through on the clutch when it was really needed. A very warm thank you is extended to the Newspaper Staff and Mrs. Wynn, thanks for allowing us to have so many pictures. To Mrs. Worthy and Ms. Holloway, thank you for not allowing us to quit when we really wanted to. If we have forgotten anyone, we sincerely aploogize. We enjoyed this project and we hope that each you can enjoy this book. THANK YOU!

The Newspaper Staff

We can honestly say that this has been an experience that we will never forget. Sometimes we tend to take on more responsibilities than we are ready for, but that is when our true selves can be seen.

"The universe will reward you for taking risks on it behalf."

A very special thanks goes out to the school newspaper staff. Without your support,we would not havebeen able to complete this book. Thank you for the pictures.

Stading the Test of Time is the theme that was selected prior to Sept. 11, 2002. The university aquired many changes due to the economy. Many of the ideas prevalent in this book are from the members of the 2001/2002 Yearbook Staff. We will not accept all the credit because we did not do it alone.

We would like to encourage the graduating Class of 2002 to "Let your heart guide you. It whispers, so listen closely". (The Land Before Time)
